POLICE LAND SMASHES ON GIRLS AND WOMEN

Total of 305 Hauled to Jails Now—Annie Weinstein Shows Black and Blue Print of Cop's Hand on Her Arm—Atty. Cunnea Says Arrests Illegal, Victims All Within the Law.

Up until noon today there had been a total of 306 men, women and girls in the clothing strike thrown into police wagons and hustled over into the notorious, stinking jails of Chicago.

Two boy strikers, Joseph Goodman and Charles P. Goldman, 16 years old, were dragged into boys' court.

Three beautiful Jewish girls were hauled before Judge La Buy in Desplaines st. Annie Weinstein of 1421 Hastings st. rolled up her sleeve.

"Look at that," she said.

There were black and blue bruises on her right arm, marking where a big brutal strong hand clutched her and arrested her.

Beatie Att of 1330 W. 13th st. had a swollen lip where the hand of a Healey copper slapped her.

Fannie Goldberg of 2615 Haddon st. had not got her hair straightened out after the way it was pulled by a cop who arrested her at Jackson and Green sts.

One cop, the girls said, tore along the sidewalk yelling:

"Get the hell out of here. We'll
